MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, National Intelligence Council
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Formation of an Economic Advisory Board

1. I think this Economic Advisory Board is too big. I don't want to get into a room with that many public officials and private poohbahs. George Shultz, Alan Greenspan and Peter Flanigan are already on the President's Board. The only guys I recognize as having ideas in the remainder of the private group are Malmgren, Behrman, Landau and Cooper. I view Blumenthal, Morgan, Ingersoll, Puckett and probably Hewlett as too high level to be useful.

2. Let's take this one back to the drawing board.
